

The Dawn of Monotheism? Judean Religion(s) in the Persian and Early Hellenistic Period (5th-3rd cent. BCE)
In light of Iconographic, Epigraphic, and Biblical Sources

SYMPOSIUM

26th April 2024 / Faculty of History / University of Warsaw / Columned Hall

10.00 Opening words

10.00-11.30 Session One

- Practicing Religion in the Diaspora: A Dialogue Between Ancient Texts and Modern Cases (Ida Hartmann and Frederik Poulsen, University of Copenhagen)
- Complicating the Categories: Revisiting Exile as Forced Migrations 13 Years Later (Alexiana Fry and Kacper Ziemba, University of Copenhagen)

Coffee Break

12.00-13.30 Session Two

- The Giving of the Law in No Man's Land - On the literary and historical localisation of the Sinai Torah (Martin Staszak, École Biblique et Archéologique Française de Jérusalem)
- East Meets West?! The Iconography of Persian and Early Hellenistic Times (Katharina Pyschny, University of Graz)

13.30-14.30 Lunch

14.30-16.30 Session Three

- Otto Rubensohn's "Unegyptian" Figurines: A Reappraisal of the Household Cult of the Judeans/Arameans at Elephantine (Sarah Hollaender, University of Graz)
- A Judean Businessman in Sippar in the Early Achaemenid Age (?) New Evidence from VS4,118 (Giorgio Paolo Campi, University of Warsaw)
- The Jewish Service in the Armies of the Seleucid Empire and the Worldview and Intentions of the Hasmoneas (Haggai Olshanetsky, University of Warsaw)

Organized by:

UNIVERSITY
OF WARSAW

Wydział Historii
Uniwersytetu Warszawskiego

In collaboration with:

INDEPENDENT
RESEARCH FUND
DENMARK

NATIONAL SCIENCE CENTRE
POLAND

Deutsche
Forschungsgemeinschaft